

GENERAL STUDENT CONDUCT

The optimum benefits of the instructional process are available only when each student participates in and contributes to the process of learning that takes place in the classroom. To assure that this is present in each classroom, the Trustees believe that each student must adhere to the standards of conduct established by the school district and each of the schools.

School administrators and teachers will make known to all students and parents the expectations of good school conduct. They will assure that all class conduct is based on these principles.

School administrators and teachers will not subject themselves to abuse, annoyance or interruptions of their normal teaching functions by violations of the stated standards. They shall hold students to strict account for their conduct on school grounds, on the playground and during any intermission, (e.g. recess, field trips, and all school sponsored activities).

Students who do not observe the standards interrupt their own instruction, but more seriously, that of other students in the class. Students who will not observe these standards and whose parents will not or cannot affect proper behavior will be denied the opportunity to attend school.

Students who are denied the opportunity to attend school for violations of standards of good school conduct will be permitted to re-enter school only with the consent of the Superintendent and the school principal. Re-entry will be on a probationary basis and subject to continuing evaluation for conformance with the standards.

It shall be the policy of the Board of Trustees that the Superintendent shall cause to be formulated administrative regulations to provide a basic discipline procedure for each of the schools in the district. Each school shall be charged with the development of school and classroom plans that are consistent with the regulations and that serve the unique needs of each school.
